SUGAR BOWL FOOTBALL GAME PROGRAM AT N. O. HIGHLIGHT OF SEASON

Nine Sports Events, With Football as the Major Number, Scheduled For Holiday Athletic Carnival—Nation's Eyes on Orleans.

Nine sports events, dominated, of course, by the Sugar Bowl, football game on New Year's Day, comprise the 1936-1937 program of the Mid-Winter Sports Association. The calendar, extending over a period of two weeks, lists an outdoor track meet, inter-city basketball game, invitation tennis matches, yachting regatta, rowing race, intercollegiate golf match, and six mile road race. The track meet on Loyola university's famed cinder path, will usher in the athletic fortnight on December 27. Fourteen of the entrants were members of the last U. S. Olympic team and six are national champions in their events. Heading the competitors are Glenn Cunningham, Joe McCluskey, Don Lash, Archie San Romani and Helen Stephens.

On December 28, a picked squad of amateurs from St. Louis will meet an all-star boxing team from New Orleans at the Coliseum arena. The following night Tennessee university's cage team, champions of the Southeastern Conference, will play Arkansas, title holders in the Southwest loop, in Tulane gymnasium. The tennis matches run four days beginning December 28 on the Country Club's fast courts. Two or more nationally known players will compete.

The football game is set for Friday, January 1, (New Year's Day), in Tulane Stadium.

Next afternoon yacht races in eight classes ranging from small star boats to full-sized sloops will take place on Lake Pontchartrain. Members of Southern Yacht Club, second oldest yacht club in America will be hosts and furnish most of the competition.

Two crack four-oared crews will race a half mile in New Basin canal during the morning of January 2, in a southern revival of sculling, favorite Crescent City sport in the old days.

The golf matches will see four of the nation's best college stars in action. These will be held on Sunday, January 3.

A fencing tournament in which a number of Central and South American swordsmen will cross foils with duellists of New Orleans is one of the features of the program.

Closing the carnival on January 8, is a road race traversing the same historic course taken by Pirate Lafitte and his band when they set out to assist General Andrew Jackson at the Battle of New Orleans. The athletes start at Spanish Fort and finish opposite Jackson Square, in the heart of the Vieux Carre.

AWARDS GIVEN TO GRIDMEN

Seventeen Members of Football Squad Receive Letter Sweaters With Due Formality.

Seventeen members of the 1936 football squad received letter sweaters at a banquet tendered to them last Thursday evening in the college dining hall. Coach Harry "Wop" Glover, made the awards and complimented each player as he came forward to receive his sweater.

The sweaters are of medium weight shaker knit and all wool. They are scarlet with an eight inch black chenille "S" on the front. The stripes on the arm are woven in black. The neck is of the conventional v-shape. Each member of the team expressed his pleasure in having received sweaters this year and of such good quality and appearance. For the past several years jackets were given as awards.

Those receiving letter sweaters Captain V. J. Gianelloni, Frank Fagan, Ignatius Detelle, Burton Hardy, Joe Glover, Louis Rogers, C. J. Stockton, John Sangassan, John Bryan, Vlado Ivicovich, Dave Glover, Arthur E. Gene, Monte, Roy Strong, J. C. Strong, T. Thomas and Manuel Harless, senior student manager.

POWERFUL
The Army recently tested a 16-ton bomber described as the fastest and longest-ranged aircraft of its type in the world. The Boeing ship will carry a ton of bombs and fly 3,000 miles non-stop. It also carries five machine-gun turrets. Its wing spread is 105 feet and the ship is seventy feet long and fifteen feet wide.

Moving Large Store For Grocery Store To Be Established in Waveland

The spacious one-story frame building, located on the Old Spanish Trail, east of Brown's Vineyard, and perhaps better known more recently as the Ruby Cafe, a roadside inn, is in process of being moved over to the neighborhood of Coleman avenue business thoroughfare of Waveland.

Jules Favre, well-known contractor and builder, and with moving buildings as a specialty, has the contract. It was recently sold to Dan Chadwick who is planning to open a general grocery and merchandise store in the immediate future—that is, as early as conveniently possible.

Judging from the size of the building, Mr. Chadwick plans to conduct a large store and, accordingly will carry a large and varied stock, catering to family and general trade. Due notice of date of opening will be given.

CHRISTMAS CAROLS AT WAVELAND

Sponsored by the Federal Music Project, there will be an entertainment to consist of singing Christmas carols Sunday, December 20, at Waveland school building, 3 o'clock P. M. And to which the public from over Hancock county is invited. No admission fee.

Schools participating are Edwardsville, Lakeshore, Clermont Harbor. The music will be directed by Mrs. E. W. Weber, pianist.

BUYING PLANES

The purchase of airplanes in the United States by foreign countries moved upward during November. Japan, Russia, The Netherlands and Siam were heavy purchasers. China, which has been buying heavily for some time, spent only a minor sum during the month. Argentina bought heavily during the month in which foreign nations purchased aircraft and munitions amounting to $3,472,416.

LIQUOR

During the fiscal year 1936, 110,166,811 taxable gallons of liquor were consumed in the United States. This is an increase of 33.5 per cent over 1935 and figures for the first four months of the current fiscal year indicate accelerated consumption. Whiskey stocks nearly doubled during the fiscal year, amounting to 300,658,508 gallons on June 30, 1936. This is 22,000,000 gallons above the peak pre-prohibition stocks.

PRESIDENT OF JAUBERT BROS., FIRM AT N. O. SIGNALLY HONORED

On Fiftieth Anniversary of Company—Stockholders Present Silver Set

An unusual event and one of particular interest not only in New Orleans but to a widely spread adjacent territory thereto was the surprise celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the wholesale dry goods firm of Jaubert Bros., wholesale dry goods merchants at New Orleans.

Established in 1886 and successfully conducted over that half century period extending to 1936, by the late Fortune Jaubert, the present, Fortune Jaubert, Jr., was most agreeably surprised by stockholders at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Schmidt, New Orleans, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. Jaubert.

Unsuspectingly Mr. Jaubert was attracted to the Schmidt home and plans that had been in the making for some time were suddenly revealed in their fruition. A magnificent silver punch bowl, with tray and goblets, was presented Mr. Jaubert as a testimonial of appreciation and regard to the president who has ably managed the firm since his father's untimely death some years ago.

The dining room was fittingly decorated and a silver cornucopia, symbolical of the horn of plenty, appropriately engraved, was also presented. Miss Frances Schmidt, grand daughter, and youngest stockholder in the company, made the formal presentation.

From Bay St. Louis there were Mrs. John W. Bryan, Mrs. H. P. Burbank, Mrs. Leo E. Kenney, sisters of Mr. Jaubert, and stockholders, accompanied by members of their respective families. Other sisters included Mrs. C. J. Chadwick, Mrs. John Dugan and a brother.

The firm of Jaubert Bros. is known over the country. The senior Mr. Jaubert left it as a fine heritage. The traditions of this great business institution has been carried down to date by his senior son as president and his associates.

HOLIDAY DATES AT NITE CLUB

Popular Uncle Charlie's To Give Three Holiday Dance Presentations—Public Invited.

Uncle Charlie announces three events for the holiday season at his ever popular Nite Club. This will add to the holiday festivities and enjoyment of the public.

The first dance will take place on Christmas Eve, December 24. The second, Saturday night, December 26.

The third, New Year's Eve night, December 31.

For this holiday trio of dates Uncle Charlie announces the services of Blue Melody Dance Orchestra, of Bay St. Louis, a popular favorite for all dancers.

There will be the usual holiday treatment and festive decorations.

News Notes of the Week From King's Daughters Hospital

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lott, a son, weighing 10 pounds, Sunday, December 13.

Born on December 10, a daughter weighing 9 pounds to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Van Court of Bay St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tartavola are the proud parents of a daughter, which they named, Norma Jean.

Mrs. Henry Moutin has left the hospital.

Mr. A. Saucier was discharged, much improved.

STOLEN CAR RECOVERED

Automobile stolen from Ulysses Cuevas recently while parked in front of his place of business in Railroad avenue, was recovered a few days ago. It was found abandoned in Louisiana territory not far from Mississippi, in a somewhat damaged condition and the spare wheel missing. It is suspected two men took the car, finding the ignition key in place, made good their escape. Mr. Cuevas had left the car in front of his furniture store for a short while and on his return found it missing.

PRINTING CHRISTMAS CARDS

The Sea Coast Echo printing department will imprint Christmas cards for its friends and the public in general, regardless of where the cards are purchased. Buy your own cards and we will print them at a small cost—surprisingly low. We have no cards to sell. You buy them, we do the printing.

WOMAN IS VICTIM OF FIRE

Body of Mrs. S. A. Denyer 64, Found at Home in Touline Street Sunday

Burned to death from an unknown definite cause, the body of Mrs. (Widow) S. A. Denyer, residing in a cottage owned by Charles Banderet, in Touline street, was found Sunday morning on the floor of her bed room by passersby who saw a trace of smoke emanating from one of the windows.

The city fire alarm sounded at about 8 o'clock to which the usual prompt response was given.

Mrs. Denyer's body was found burned from the knees up, the flesh from her arms was partly gone, it was stated. Her clothing had caught fire during the night, it is thought, from some unexplained cause, and it is further surmised that she met her death then and there. A large portion of the floor where she was found was burned. No other damage to the house resulted.

Mrs. Denyer lived alone. She was a native of New Orleans, aged 64 years, a native of Lafourche parish, La., and had been an adopted daughter of a prominent family of that time known as the Baldwins. She lived alone because she so desired.

Her husband died some six or seven years ago. It was besides his remains in Cedar Rest cemetery she was buried Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the Rev. A. J. Boyles, pastor First Methodist church, conducting the last rites.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Arthur Stone, who, with her family, resides at 1230 N. Rendon street, New Orleans.

The deceased was known in and around the neighborhood and enjoyed the esteem of quite a number of people, but otherwise lived a quiet life. It was said she was a victim of asthma and it is possible while enduring one of the attacks that the accident that caused her death occurred during the night.

HARRY BAXTER, OF LOGTOWN, BURIED SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Well Known as Chief Book-keeper for H. Weston Lumber Co. For 26 Years.

Funeral services for Harry Baxter, 61 years, were conducted Sunday afternoon at the family home in Logtown by the Rev. Mr. Flurry of the Logtown Methodist Church, assisted by the Rev. John W. Moore, Methodist minister of Pascagoula. Interment was in the family plot, Logtown Cemetery, with Masonic honors.

Mr. Baxter was a Royal Arch Mason and a Knight Templar, and was a member of Diamond Lodge F. & A. M. He was also a member of the Junior Order of the American Mechanics.

On March 8, 37 years ago, Mr. Baxter married Miss Emma Koch daughter of Mr. Frank Koch and Mrs. Sarah Summers Koch. Besides his widow, he is survived by his mother, Mrs. J. W. Baxter, of Meridian, Miss.; five sons, John Baxter of Gulfport; Alton Baxter, Walton Baxter and Austin Baxter, all of Logtown; and Harry Baxter, Jr., of Covington, La. He is also survived by two brothers, Roy Baxter, Logtown, John Baxter, Montgomery, Ala., and two sisters, Mrs. Lucy McCracken, Sardis, Miss., and Mrs. Daisy Culpepper, Meridian, Miss.

Mr. Baxter was well and widely known over Hancock County and in the lumber manufacturing circles. He was head book-keeper for the H. Weston Lumber Company for twenty-six years. He was highly regarded by his employers, and universally esteemed by all who knew him. He had been ill for quite a long while.

Deceased was a cousin of Mr. J. C. Baxter, manager Hotel Weston, and Mrs. Leo W. Seal, both of this city.

MOST DANGEROUS AGE

Twenty-one is the most dangerous age—the United States Bureau of Investigation reports more persons of that age are arrested for crimes than any other age. Women constitute only 7.4 per cent of those arrested and 17.5 per cent of those arrested are under twenty-one.

Pale of Ale

Customer—Ginger ale.
Waiter—Pale?
Customer—Good gracious, no, just a glass.

"My wife left me because I played too much golf."
"How much would a good set of golf clubs cost me?"

LOCAL POST OFFICE WILL CLOSE XMAS; NO MAIL DELIVERY

All U. S. Post Offices to Observe Christmas Day—Urge Early Mailings.

H. C. Glover, Bay St. Louis postmaster, announces for the benefit of patrons and others that the local office will be closed all day Christmas, and that no window deliveries city deliveries or rural deliveries of mail will be made.

This closing order is general throughout the United States and will affect all postoffices, on special instructions from the Post Office Department at Washington.

Postoffice patrons are respectfully urged to mail all outgoing packages not later than Friday or Saturday before noon, December 18-19, in order that they may reach destinations and be delivered at other points prior to Christmas Day, otherwise they will be delayed over until Saturday following Christmas.

With many there is a certain delinquency in forwarding a Christmas present too early. But one must be considerate of the mail clerks and others connected with the post office system. It is far better to send your present before time than to have the recipient receive his or her gift "the day after."

PRESIDENT BACK IN GOOD U. S. A.

Greeted by Throngs on Return From South American Mission—Lands at Charleston

President Roosevelt returned to the United States Tuesday, terminating an epochal cruise to South America.

Reporting his return home the International News Service said that ahead of him in Washington was the opening of Congress and inauguration. Behind him was the Inter-American conference at Buenos Aires, now in the process of rounding out to a seemingly successful conclusion.

Heavily tanned, the President came over the side of the cruiser Indianapolis at 8:30 a. m., pausing only long enough to say a heartfelt goodbye to the officers and men who had carried him 12,261 miles in the record-breaking time of 28 days.

Early morning crowds lined Charleston streets to give Mr. Roosevelt a rousing homecoming as he proceeded to his waiting special train. At 9 o'clock he was en route to Washington and a resumption of the cares of office to which he was overwhelmingly re-elected last month.

Twenty-two days at sea, under a tropical sun had erased every indication of the strain of the recent campaign from the president's face. He appeared to be in the most robust health.

Six days spent in port at Rio de Janeiro, Buenos Aires, Montevideo and Port au Spain had convinced him that the "good neighbor" policy was working admirably throughout the Western Hemisphere. Enthusiastic outpourings of the population reminded of the most fervid demonstrations of the recent presidential campaign greeted Mr. Roosevelt every time he set foot in South America.

Only one thing marred the president's cruise south of the equator. That was the sudden and unexpected death of his personal bodyguard, Gus Gennrich, at Buenos Aires.

Gus' Boom Salute

Gennrich's casket was taken off the Indianapolis shortly before the president's departure and conveyed to the special train. Mrs. Roosevelt has arranged for White House services tomorrow morning for the former New York policeman who became almost a member of the family. The sad duty of accompanying the body to New York thereafter for burial will fall upon James Roosevelt, the president's eldest son.

Presidential Secretary Marvin H. McIntyre and Personal Secretary Marguerite Le Hand were waiting at the dock to greet the copper-hued party that disembarked. Present also was Betsy Roosevelt, wife of James.

Full honors were accorded the executive as he went over the side of the Indianapolis through stiffly saluting side-boys.

Twenty-one gun salutes were fired by the Indianapolis and the convoying cruiser Chester and destroyer Phelps. The band played "The Star-Spangled Banner" and bluejackets manned all rails.

GETS PAY

Guy V. Howard of Minnesota, will sit in the Senate but will draw full senatorial pay of $833.33 a month and is entitled to clerk hire of more than $1,000 a month. He was the only candidate for a term which expires on the day that Congress meets in January.

MONEY FOR HANCOCK FARMERS

Co. Agent John Bozeman Stresses Necessity Signing Applications For Federal Aid

Applications for payment under the 1936 Agricultural Conservation Program, are being received by the county agent. Farmers urged to cooperate in signing these applications.

J. A. Bozeman, county agent, advises that quite a number of applications for payment, under the 1936 Soil Conservation Program, for farmers in the county have been received. Since it is necessary that each applicant sign his own application for payment, Mr. Bozeman has arranged three meeting places for the convenience of the farmers in signing these applications. Mr. Bozeman wishes to emphasize the fact that these applications must be signed and returned to the State office in Jackson, Mississippi before any checks can be issued, so it is that your county agent is asking that the farmers come to the place most convenient for them and attend to this matter. Since all applications have not been received, it will only be necessary for those who receive notices to come to these meetings.

The schedule for meeting places is as follows:

Saturday December 19, 1936, Cat-ahoula School House, 9 A. M.

Saturday, December 19, 1936, Lee Town School House, 10 A. M.

Saturday, December 19, 1936, Sellers School House, 11:30 A. M.

ART AND CRAFT EXHIBIT

By Prof. Horace Russ Saturday Was Varied and Colorful—Many Visit.

Many people were attracted to the arts and craft exhibit displayed at the Bay Central School, Saturday, December 12th, under the supervision of Professor Horace Russ, instructor of art, at the Warren Easton high school, of New Orleans.

This colorful and varied display represented the abilities of some of Mr. Russ' most talented pupils. The exhibits consisted of pen and ink drawings, soap carving, metal work, jewelry, water colors, casting and poster design.

The ability of a child to become an artist, said Mr. Russ, "should not be permitted to stagnate, but should be cultivated while the child is young in order to capitalize on the full value of his talents."

One of his chief purposes in exhibiting this collection was to interest the young people in this community in art.

Norman Benigno Now Conducting Two Places Of Business In City

Norman Benigno, recent purchaser of Pitre's Cafe, on the Beach Front, has remodeled the interior and plans to improve the place from time to time and bids for a liberal patronage.

He is catering to both local and transient trade and invites the public to visit and patronize the place. He plans to make it one of the most popular cafes on the Coast.

Mr. Benigno, who formerly conducted the place known as "Benigno's Bar" on Railroad avenue, opposite L. & N. Depot, will still continue this business and at the same place. In other words, owning and operating two places. The young man is both enterprising and active and will make both places a go.

ECHO NEXT WEEK, AS USUAL

The impression seems to prevail in some minds and from certain quarters that The Sea Coast Echo issues no paper during Christmas week. This is erroneous. The paper is issued regularly every week. There is no interruption. Advertisers and others having news or social items will take notice. However, the publication office and plant will be closed for the day Christmas. Outside of that there will be no interruption in our publishing or printing. The printing plant will be open and run as usual.

Mr. Doots—I see that in one foreign country a wife can be bought for a dollar.

Mrs. Doots—Oh, I guess a good wife is worth it.

S. S. C. BAND PRESENTS CONCERT

Annual Concert to Public Proves Most Entertaining Affair; Showmarked Proficiency.

In a series of well selected and well rendered numbers the St. Stanislaus College Band, under the direction of Rev. Brother Romuald, S. C., made its bow to the public in its first public concert of the year, Wednesday evening. In spite of the fact that many good players were lost at the end of last year, this year's aggregation, by dint of hard work and much extra time, have seemed not only to have reached their proficiency but even have surpassed it. The concert was a most entertaining affair, both from the kind of music presented as well as from the skill by which each number was rendered. The program presented follows:

1. Ambassador, March—Laurendeau
2. Pantheon, Overture—Holmes
3. Louise, Selection—Fulton
4. Buddies, Trumpet Duet—Holmes
5. Saskatchewan, Overture—Holmes
6. Blue Danube, Waltz—Strauss
7. Children's March—Goldman
8. Glorious Youth, March—Whistler
9. Vaudeictorian, Overture—Morris
10. Yuletide Echoes, Medley—Sanders
11. Saxophone Quartet—Christmas
12. Airs—Robert Dismukes, William Brignac, Stetson Fitzwillson, Rob. Grevenberg
13. Chimes of Normandy—Planquette
14. Memories of Stephen Foster—Holmes
15. Stepping Along, March—Goldman

The Echo wishes to add its meed of deserved praise to the excellence of the music presented by the youthful collegians, under the direction of their able instructor, Bro. Romuald, who labors year in and year out for the success of the band.

Musicians who know and attended the concert Wednesday night gave the band superlative praise. The musicians gave marked evidence of their careful training and showed a decided talent for music. St. Stanislaus college has long been known for the proficiency of its work—in each and every department, specializing in all, and music, by no means is an exception.

We wish to compliment the youthful musicians as well as their instructor, truly a master of his art.

At the annual and regular monthly meeting of Bay Chapter, No. 129, Order Eastern Star, the following named heads were elected to serve for the new year, with installation of officers to take place on second Thursday of January, the fourteenth, with the customary ceremony.

Newly-elected officers include: Mrs. Lena Speer, worthy matron; Dr. James A. Evans, worthy patron; Mrs. Ora Mae Craft, associate matron; S. L. Engman, associate patron; Mrs. Valda B. Evans, secretary; E. S. Drake, treasurer; Mrs. Lena Stockstill, conductress; Mrs. Florence Pears, associate conductress.

Other officers are appointive. This will be made at a later date.

HANCOCK AT M. S. C. W.

Hancock county is represented by three students at Mississippi State College for Women, it was revealed in a recent survey. Enrolled at the college are: Misses Lydia Abigail Bourgeois, Beatrice Shaw, and Virginia Baxter.

Miss Abbie Bourgeois, Bay St. Louis, has been chosen as the manager of the freshman swimming team at Mississippi State College for Women. Miss Bourgeois will direct the practice of the team in preparation for the inter-class swimming meet to be held the latter part of January or the first part of February.

A SUBSCRIPTION TO THE ECHO FOR CHRISTMAS PRESENT.

Every year about this time The Echo receives a number of subscriptions from people who wish to send the paper to some friend or relative for the entire year. This sort of a present has proven desirable and acceptable. And is not expensive. It serves as a gift for fifty-two weeks.

MISSISSIPPI'S PRIMEVAL BEAUTY.

ON December 14, 1817—one hundred and nineteen years ago today—a new star was added to the flag of the nation.

The great State of Mississippi was born on that day.

Discussing this anniversary, the bulletin of the Mississippi Forest and Park service says:

"Mississippi was endowed at birth with wealth and beauty in the form of forests primeval. For years this beauty remained and increased, and the beauty was unmarred. Then man's lust for money and lack of appreciation of the beauty which surrounded him caused him to ruthlessly lay waste to the forests with no thought of replacement."

During these 119 years Mississippi has grown mightily in agriculture and industry, in education and in culture—but gone is the beauty that was once hers—gone because man looked not to the future—gone because no restraining hand held his rapacity in leash, says the West Point Times-Leader.

Steps are now being taken to restore some of this primeval beauty—to heal some of the scars on our barren hillsides—to grow trees along our roadsides, to prevent further erosion of our soils, to halt the flood waters that are overflowing our lowlands, and to permit the mighty forces of nature to again assert themselves in the evolution of time.

It is a great undertaking, which should have the hearty encouragement of every patriotic citizen.

SEVEN BOWLS.

California has its Rose Bowl.
New Orleans has its Sugar Bowl.
Miami has its Orange Bowl.
Memphis has its Cotton Bowl.
Columbus has its Magnolia Bowl.
The politicians have their gravy bowl.
And the whole country has its flowing bowl.

NEVER STRUTTED HIS STUFF.

Fred Sullens says let this be said about Edward VIII. He never strutted on parade as do Mussolini, Hitler and Lenin. He never sought applause. He was just a chap going along and doing the best he could with a difficult task.

NEW 'COPY' FOR FRONT PAGE.

President Roosevelt's anticipated return home will give our daily newspapers a new brand of front page reading. Spain and England claimed that coveted position of space for the past several weeks.

Let us hope for a better brand of weather for the N. O. Sugar Bowl football classic this New Year's than the last. If you attended, dear reader, you will remember how it poured and spectators watched the game under sheltering (?) umbrellas. Anyway, it was a good game and worth it.

Rose Bowl headquarters at Pasadena proclaimed the Washington-Pittsburgh game New Year's Day a "sell out" and announced that no more ticket applications would be accepted. The bowl seats approximately 85,000. The ticket sale opened last Monday.

Hattiesburg firemen are wondering how a 20-pound possum got into the attic of the G. P. Rhodes home. Annoyed by noise in the attic, Rhodes called Fireman Ed Barksdale to investigate. Barksdale said Clyde O'marra, a postoffice employee, who joined the search, captured the possum with his bare hands. A negro woman was given the possum. Strange things are found in one's attic!

Picayune is fully abreast with the times. Three prizes are offered for the "best living Christmas trees" in Picayune by the conservative committee of the Women's Club of that city. The trees entered in the contest, according to report, are to be lighted not later than December 19. It is planned to have one big tree in the center of the business district.

The other side of the joyous holidays is the tragedy that generally accompanies. Death and sorrow particularly stalk this country at this particular time.

Mississippi Gulf Coast offers many advantages over other winter resorts. Not so far to travel from principal centers of North and East, easier of access, and climate equal to any, if not better. Proximity to both Southern cities of romance and history, New Orleans and Mobile, the lure should prove irresistible.

Already Biloxi has received a large share of its annual winter visitors and the regular tourists' club is already functioning. From reports there are many visitors from colder climes already on the east section of the Coast and hotels, after January 1st, expect this to be one of their biggest seasons.

MAKING CHRISTMAS REAL.

THE people of Bay St. Louis next week will celebrate again the advent of Christmas, with many expressions of love and esteem and occasions of great happiness and joy. Most of us have little reason to be sad in the midst of such universal good feeling but there are some to whom Christmas cheer is but an empty word. Let us make it our business, for just one day, at least, to share our blessings with those who have not been quite so fortunate.

In larger cities there are organizations galore to undertake the hard work of seeking out and ministering unto the boys and girls and grown-ups, too, for whom the fates have in store no happy moments. Here it is the job of the individual in a measure, to substitute for Santa Claus and make concrete some of the concern voiced for all those not otherwise able to enjoy a real Christmas.

We know, from past experience, that our people will look around them and hasten to express in kindness the Christian spirit that abounds on the days for their faith. Moreover, there are others who take this day as the occasion to participate in good works and to make happiness widespread and joy general throughout the breadth and length of this country.

Let's do our part, as individuals, either thru cash offerings or personal service, to see that a real Christmas exists this year for every person in Hancock county.

"OLD RELIABLE" L. & N.

BY reference to the advertising columns of The Sea Coast Echo it is noted the L. & N. railroad corporation announces that forty-four of its trains will be completely air conditioned, this gigantic enterprise to be in readiness by spring. There will be a million dollars worth, says the announcement.

This is to serve its patrons better. This betterment action is to be swung along a five-thousand mile front. To increase travel comfort one hundred and twenty-two coaches and diners will be air conditioned.

Railroad improvements cost tremendously and in the face of the past few years it is not very encouraging to spend money seemingly so lavishly. But if the railroads are to regain their lost patronage, regardless of how it was lost—it will have to go after the business. And improvements, to make the train as comfortable as your home, is going to do it. Faster and a continuation of safe trains; the maximum of comfort and accommodation is going to turn the trick. This it appears, is the program adopted by the railroads of the country. And the L. & N. is not slow to adopt the new methods and will not inaugurate the improvements in half manner. But whole heartedly.

Railroads are the life of the country, of its business and people. They are among the biggest tax-payers in the land. A mutual cooperation is necessary to keep them going.

OUR SISTER CITY WAVELAND.

NOTED from time to time thru the year Waveland, Bay St. Louis' sister city to the south, shows more actual building than possibly any town of its size anywhere under ordinary conditions.

It is not necessary to seek the records. Casual survey reveals more individual dwellings were erected during the present year than for a long time over the same given period. Not only along the beach front but thru the town and its piney woods suburbs are many new structures for residential purpose.

Nicholson avenue shows a rapid forward move. An outstanding thoroughfare for many years standing, with no buildings, finds one section with a row of modern and attractive dwellings, occupied by owners from away who come to make Waveland their summer home.

With the advance of reality values the indication is unmistakable that Waveland, always a favorite, has taken a move forward. This is possibly the beginning for the new year. An incentive for '37 and it is probable we may see a still bigger building program for the new year.

CHRISTMAS SAVINGS.

BANKS are advertising the Christmas savings plan for the new year and reports in banking circles are to the effect that so far the number of such new accounts for '37 far exceeds the number of last year at this time. Banks are rendering the public a most valuable service in helping to save. In fact, the bank pays the depositor money to save and does all the work of book-keeping and taking care of the money gratis. No other business or institution offers such service. A Christmas savings account may be put to so many practical uses. To help accumulate money to pay taxes, life and fire insurance, for school purposes and many other purposes. It might be well to start that account today at one of the local banks.

TO CURTAIL RELIEF.

HERE is a story far from cheerful particularly at this time of the season of cheer. Word came from Jackson recently to the effect that State WPA Director Wayne Allison announces three thousand persons now on WPA relief rolls will be dropped January 1 in general reduction.

Dr. Allison said the reduction was ordered in compliance with a direct order from WPA administration in Washington.

Added gloom: Look for another such order further reducing the number in near future.

BUY EARLY, MAIL EARLY.

This is December, the month of Santa Claus and Christmas presents. Do you like to get your presents early? Of course you do. Then do likewise unto the other fellow. Buy early and mail early.

INTERESTING NEWS ITEMS OF THE MOVIES AND FILM FOLK IN HOLLYWOOD

COLOR photography, used more than ever during 1936, is destined to be used even more during the coming year. Already various studios have announced that 17 productions using color will be made during 1937.

Among the color films now scheduled are: "Vogues of 1937," "The Arabian Nights," "Goldwyn Follies," "A Star is Born" and others.

Metro is contemplating making a screen version of Robert E. Sherwood's Pulitzer Prize play, "Idiot's Delight," and Clark Gable is slated for the role being acted by Alfred Lunt on the stage.

Fred Astaire has sufficiently recovered from a recent attack of influenza to start rehearsals on "Stepping Out," his next feature for RKO.

Although each is a well-known actress to the movie world, Joan Crawford and Katherine Hepburn had never met until recently when Joan Crawford visited her husband, Franchot Tone, on the RKO lot where he was working in a picture with Miss Hepburn.

Actors and actresses have their likes and dislikes, even as you and I. Jack Benney hates "those blood-red fingernails on women." Carole Lombard dislikes violently "the chap who reeks of hair oil." Martha Raye's pet peeve is "the guy who thinks a night club check is a receipt for a necking party," and George Burns could "burn up" the girl who lets you tell a story and then says, "Oh, Joe Dokes told it funnier."

Robert Taylor's next leading lady, following Greta Garbo, is to be Luise Rainer. They will be together in "Maiden Voyage," scheduled for immediate production at MGM.

Sigmund Romberg is in Hollywood working on the musical score of "Girl of the Golden West," while Wm. Anthony McGuire is writing the screen play. Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy will be teamed again in the leading roles.

It won't be long before every feminine star in Hollywood will be an expert dancer, it seems Carole Lombard is the latest to take it up, as her newest picture, "Swing High, Swing Low," calls for a tap dance routine.

Now that her honeymoon with Rogers Pryor is over, Ann Southern is back in Hollywood, ready to resume her work as a movie star. She has been cast for the feminine lead in Robert Donat's next picture at RKO.

Work in motion pictures adds ten years to the life of any actor or actress, according to Dr. Lawrence Spangard, Hollywood physician. Screen folk take excellent care of themselves in order to keep physically attractive as well as mentally alert, he says. Practically all of them have a hobby which develops them physically and maintains their health.

MGM has signed Sophie Tucker, "America's red-hot mama," to the chief feminine comedy and singing role in their "Broadway Melody of 1937," work on which is scheduled to begin the first of the year.

Pete Smith describes the war-like outdoor sport which is the subject of his latest MGM specialty, "Hurling," as the "doctor's delight." Each player wields a a shillalah-like bat and injuries are frequent.

I HAVE A LITTLE CHRISTMAS TREE.

I have a little Christmas tree,
It's standing in my heart
And there's a light on every limb.
It looks so brave and smart.

There're lovely gifts by every light,
A thousand gifts, I guess,
And every single one of these
Allures with loveliness.

On every gift there is a name,
A name that's dear and sweet.
I wrote it there my very self.
Another hand might cheat.

I did not write it there with ink.
I wrote it with a tear
And with a little tender smile
To make the gift more dear.

I tied each little package, too
With love-knots fair and fine.
And with each gift I put a piece
Of this fond heart of mine.

At last, when every little touch
Had made my tree so trim
With my own lips I pressed a kiss
On every vibrant limb.

Then, tearing tree with roots and all
From out my heart's best moid, on
On Christmas Day, I'll bear it back
For you to have and hold.

I'm very sure your happy hands
Will plant it deep once more,
Deep in your heart to leaf and bud
And bloom with gifts galore.

And since you love me much the same,
I'm sure as I can be,
That, Christmas Day, to grace my heart,
I'll get your Christmas Tree.

STUDIOS OF TROXLER PRESENT UNUSUALLY FINE DANCE PROGRAM

Revue Last Friday Evening
At St. Joseph Academy
Cym Scores Success

An audience of many attended the Emelda Troxler Dance Revue given at St. Joseph Gym on Friday evening of last week, one of the more delightful entertainments witnessed here in a long time.

There were forty-two separate numbers, each short and snappy and with only one brief intermission.

Miss Troxler is a master at teaching the fine art of dancing as was well evidenced. There were hardly two numbers alike. With studios in New Orleans and Gulfport and pupils from Bay St. Louis it was possible to give the varied program. Frequent and liberal applause was a compliment deserved to both teacher and pupil.

Pupils from Bay St. Louis included Shelby and Mary Leigh Weston, children of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Weston; Lucy and Ann Weston, children of Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Weston; Betty Lee Mitchell, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Mitchell; Miss Cecelia Osoinach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Osoinach, and Miss Elsie Gelpi, of New Orleans, well known locally.

Every dance was in costume all of which were pretty and added to the charm of the gracious and well trained dancers.

WORK TO BE RESUMED ON BILOXI'S BEACH EXTENSION PROJECT

Work Started Last Summer
To Be Completed By N. O.
Firm at $27,000.00

Work is expected to begin soon on the project which would complete the construction of Biloxi's sand beach, started last summer. The contract for which work was let to the Jahneke Service Inc., of New Orleans at a price of $27,000 which is the entire amount available for this work.

The new project will complete the link between the present beach near the Buena Vista Hotel and at Seal avenue, where a large gap exists. The beach will be extended westward from Porter avenue, also.

The project calls for construction of groynes and drainage. The Jahneke interests bid $14,822. 65 for the drainage and groynes and 23 cents per cubic yard for sand fill. The only other bidder was S. A. Robertson Co., which constructed the first sections of the beach.

The Methodist Children's Home at Jackson has furnished the Church, State and Nation 3,553 potential citizens of honor and integrity in its 39 years existence. Methodists here are now being called upon to help continue the work and add 75 children to its enrollment.

44 L & N Trains COMPLETELY Air-Conditioned By Spring!

Desiring to serve you even better, the Louisville & Nashville Railroad has swung into action along its 5,000-mile front!—Orders are flying—Machinery is spinning—Workmen are busy—busy on a Million Dollar program to increase your travel comfort—122 L & N coaches and diners will be air-conditioned by Spring. Including previously equipped diners and Pullmans already in service, that means every L & N main-line train, except a few locals, will be completely air-conditioned before next Summer.

Compare the cost, speed, safety, comfort, air conditioning and other conveniences of L & N service with any other form of transportation, and you'll be convinced it is the most economical and completely satisfying means of travel you can use.

The Sea Coast Echo

City Echoes

The public might as well expect something of a rumpus when and if the government curtails its relief program.

Mr. John Osinich spent Monday and Tuesday in New Orleans, combining business with a visit to his relatives in that city.

Mr. Jerry Dickson, student at L. S. U., is spending a few days in New Orleans before arriving home for the Christmas holidays to visit his parents.

Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Baxter in the serious illness of their son, Jack. Mrs. Baxter is a devoted mother and does not leave his bedside.

For Christmas dainties—Pecan Pralines, Coconut Pralines, Stuffed Dates, Salted and Shelled Pecans—Go to Kennedy's, 127 North Beach. Wholesale and Retail.

Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Jones accompanied by Mrs. Nettie Jones of New Orleans spent Wednesday here visiting her mother Mrs. Albert Jones, at their home in Ballentine street.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Fish of Meridian, Miss., are registered for a month at Hotel Weston. The garden at the Fish home is one of the beauty spots in Meridian, and the admiration of all who have the good fortune to visit it in bloom time.

For a better line of Christmas goods see De MONTLUZIN'S. Let us help you select your Xmas gift.

A number of Bay St. Louis children have been attracted to Gulfport to witness the mammoth Christmas tree at the Mississippi Power Company's building. Among those enjoying the gorgeous spectacle were little Bernice and Albert Piazza.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Burrow have moved from the North Beach cottage where they have been making their home for some time, to the dwelling on Main corner Nacaise avenue, both properties owned by the Breath interests.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lacoste and family have moved from the beach front to the former Episcopal Rectory, Carroll avenue, where they are more conveniently located to the school for their children and nearer the hospital for Mrs. Lacoste's professional service.

News from Houston, Texas, tells of a blessed event that has come to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Collins who are the justly proud parents of a lovely baby girl. Mrs. Collins is a sister of Mrs. R. L. Mitchell and is well known in Bay-Waveland.

Miss Chaddie Elliott, student in dramatic art, and who lives with her aunt, Mrs. J. H. Thompson, at the family home in Delgado Drive, came out from the big city the past weekend and will remain until after the New Year holidays visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Elliott, Union street.

Motorists between the Coast and New Orleans enjoy the splendid condition of the highway, particularly that portion known as the Shortcut. It is expected the holiday travel and fro will be unusually heavy and good roads will add to the pleasure of those who will journey to and fro.

Miss Abbie Bourgeois, student at MSCW, Columbus, will reach home this Friday evening to spend the holidays with her parents, City Commissioner and Mrs. W. L. Bourgeois, and family, at their home in Union street. Abbie has made remarkable strides at college and her success is noteworthy.

Jacob's Candies ranging in one, two, three and five pound, attractive Xmas boxes. See de MONTLUZIN'S on the beach.

A deed was recorded recently whereby Mrs. Charles Zerr became the owner of a handsome fifty-foot lot in de Montluzin avenue, immediately to the rear of the Gaspard-Ames residence. It was purchased as an investment and a present from Mr. Zerr to his wife. Work of fencing the newly-acquired property is in process.

Young Walter James Phillips, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gex, is doing nicely from the injuries received last week when he fell while playing at football in the front yard of the home of his parents and fractured his arm at the shoulder. The injury was painful and will require the usual time of weeks before the young man will have fully recovered.

Louisiana court has declared the so-called movie theaters "bank nites" illegal since it constitutes a lottery. Hence, unless the matter is taken to the supreme courts and the decision is reversed, which, legal minds say is not likely. Movie producers say it detracts from their products and the general public voices the opinion that indifferent pictures are projected on the so-called "bank nites."

NOTICE

Dr. Evans advises his patrons that his dental offices will be closed from Tuesday, December 22 until Saturday, January 2.

LIBRARY HOLIDAY CLOSING.

Library will be closed for the Christmas Holidays on the following days:

Thursday, Friday and Saturday, December 24, 25, and 26. And it will also be closed January 1st and 2nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Mitchell have had as their house guests interesting company, Mr. and Mrs. Alwyn Harold, a bridal couple, spending their honeymoon in Bay St. Louis, as house guests at the Mitchell home in Ulman avenue. The bride is a cousin of Mrs. Mitchell and before her marriage was Miss Ursula Sanction of New Orleans.

Mr. Robert E. Conner, who is finishing his law studies in Tennessee, arrived home during the week to spend the holidays with his mother, Mrs. E. H. Conner and brother, David, and is generally welcomed by both the older and younger set. He will return to his studies after New Year's.

Mr. Wilbur Driver left Friday for Monticello, Miss., to assist at the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of his brother, Hon. W. E. Driver with his estimable wife. Edgar, as he was familiarly known in his boyhood at the Bay, enjoys the esteem and confidence of the citizens of Monticello, as is attested by his repeated selection as its mayor.

Judging from the unusually heavy stock of Christmas trees received by merchants of Bay St. Louis the past week or two, there will be more such trees shining from dwellings than heretofore. The Canadian fir trees are fresh and green and the prices are moderate. There will be little or no reason for a Xmas three this year. The supply is bountiful and prices are low.

Both City and other schools of Bay St. Louis will close for the holidays after this Friday afternoon session, to reopen for active class work after New Year's. Students at St. Stanislaus will leave today for their respective homes, the same at St. Joseph's Academy. The first semester of the various Bay St. Louis schools, it is learned from special inquiry, has been productive of splendid results.

Mr. M. E. Badon, accompanied by Mrs. Badon passed through Bay St. Louis Sunday from New Orleans en route to Gulfport and visited friends part of the day while here. Mr. Badon, former resident of Bay St. Louis, and more recently with one of the Hill stores at New Orleans, moved back to the Gulf Coast to assume management of one of the departments of the new Hill store at Gulfport, which opened a few days ago. "Mac" said he was glad to be back on the Mississippi Gulf Coast again and hopes to visit Bay St. Louis and local friends more frequently after the holiday rush.

CHRISTMAS ISLAND

Christmas Island in the Pacific Ocean, where the British flag has flown for nearly half a century, may be a bone of contention between the British and American Governments. Much larger than Howland, Baker and Jarvis Islands, now available for airplane bases, the island in dispute is better fitted to serve as a plane base. Once the island, 45 miles long, was the property of the United States without dispute but, in 1888, the Union Jack was hoisted and the United States reserved all questions.

THE ECHO'S COOKING CLASS

(Dedicated to Mrs. A. A. Kergosien)

THERE could hardly be a better time for entertaining than this holiday season. The house is gay with holly and mistletoe, so with a little planning one can entertain easily. Perhaps you have a college boy or girl home for the holidays; invite their friends in for supper before or after the dance. Try these recipes and a merry, merry Christmas to you all.

Cranberry Ring With Waldorf Salad
Wash 1 quart of cranberries and add 2 cups of boiling water and cook 15 minutes. Add 4 cups of sugar and stir until dissolved. Pour into individual ring molds. When ready to serve, unmold and fill with Waldorf Salad. Garnish with holly.

Waldorf Salad
Mix equal parts of chopped apples, minced celery and chopped walnuts. Moisten with cream dressing well seasoned.

French Chocolate
2½ squares unsweetened chocolate
¾ cup sugar
¾ cup cold water
Dash of salt
½ cup cream, whipped
6 cups hot milk

Combine chocolate and water. Cook for 4 minutes, stirring constantly. Beat with rotary egg beater until smooth. Add sugar and salt. Return to fire and cook 4 minutes longer. Cool. Fold into cream. Place one rounded tablespoon into each cup and pour hot milk over it.

Mistletoe Canape

On small mounds of toast spread anchovy paste. Place a bit of parsley on each to serve as foliage for the "mistletoe." Place tiny pearl onions along the stem to represent berries and garnish the border with diced egg yolks.

Manhattan Shrimp

1 pint shrimp
4 tablespoons fat
½ teaspoon salt
Cayenne
1 teaspoon lemon juice
1 tablespoon flour
1 cup milk
Yolks of 2 eggs

Clean the shrimp and cook in half of the fat for 2 minutes. Add the seasoning and lemon juice, cook two minutes. Remove shrimp and make a white sauce of the remaining fat, flour and milk. When thickened add the yolks of the eggs, slightly beaten, stirring in quickly and cooking 2 minutes. Add the shrimps.

Pineapple Merringues

Allow one slice of canned pineapple for each serving. Place a pitted prune (cooked) or a stewed apple in the center hole of each slice. Allow 1 egg white and 1 tablespoon of confectioners sugar for 2 slices of pineapple. Beat the egg whites until frothy, add the sugar gradually and continue beating until mixture holds its shape. Add a few drops of vanilla, then pile meringue on slices of pineapple and bake in an oven 300° degrees until delicately browned.

Egg Nog

6 eggs
6 rounded tablespoons sugar
6 tablespoons brandy
Beat egg yolks well, add sugar gradually, continue beating. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Add flavoring. If desired ½ pint of cream whipped may be added. The secret of good egg nog is in the beating. Serve in tall glasses with pound cake

A Lesson in Thrifty Spending!

Thrifties are the most popular method for thrifty spending and saving. They are worth exactly the same in any city or town in which they are issued and redeemable in CASH—this Christmas or next. There are no strings, no red tape, no "ifs," "ands" or "buts"; Thrifties are a plain out and out saving proposition for everyone who saves them. All the money that will be returned to Thrifties savers next Christmas is now on deposit in one of the strongest banks in New York City. Christmas Club, a corporation, organizers of Thrifties, is the same organization which sponsors the Christmas Club plan used by banks for the past 25 years. Thrifties Pass Books are available to you without any cost or obligation.

You Save as You Spend!

It's just like DIVIDENDS from your investments — but THRIFTIES are DIVIDENDS from what you spend—accumulated for you, through the year, and paid in CASH in one lump sum just before Christmas.

Ask for THRIFTIES—save THRIFTIES and enjoy a paid for Christmas.

Ask for and Save
